RSM US Foundation Scholarship Program – FAQs

What is the Power of Inclusion Scholarship?

RSM is dedicated to building a better future by supporting the educational pursuits of tomorrow's business leaders. The RSM Power of Inclusion Scholarship in Honor of Richard Caturano was created to support students from historically underrepresented racial and ethnic populations pursuing an education in accounting, business or technology.

The scholarship is named for RSM's first chief diversity officer, Rich Caturano and is funded by the RSM US Foundation. Rich served as the 100th chair of the American Institute of CPAs and helped establish the organization's National Commission of Diversity and Inclusion. As the chair of the AICPA, Rich inspired CPA firms across the country to add diversity and inclusion as a top strategic priority and has personally delivered the message of diversity and inclusion to tens of thousands of professionals and business leaders.

What is the scholarship award?

Two recipients will be granted awards through 2022/2023 Power of Inclusion program, and each recipient will receive a $10,000 scholarship. The award will be paid to the college/university on the recipient's behalf in two $5,000 payments (Fall 2022 and Spring 2023) and applied to the recipient's tuition and/or room and board. No money will be paid to the student directly.

Each Recipient will also be invited to an information session and to interview with the firm for a future internship opportunity. Recipients are not required to attend such information session or to interview with the firm for a future internship opportunity in order to receive their Scholarships (however, no alternate opportunity will be offered if they do not).

What if I already receive scholarships or financial aid?

The scholarship funds will be paid to the college/university directly for invoiced expenses to include tuition, on-campus housing, and/or dining plans. Scholarship funds cannot be applied to off-campus housing or be paid to the recipient directly.

Who is eligible to apply for this scholarship?

The program is open to Power Your Education Scholarship applicants who are legal residents of the 50 states and Washington, D.C., who are at least 18 years old as of the date of application. Applicants must be:

- Part of a historically underrepresented racial or ethnic population, including but not limited to: Black or African American, Hispanic or of Latin descent, Native American, Pacific Islander or Asian American.
- Two years from final graduation date and full-time employment (typically sophomores on a four-year track and juniors on a five-year track).
- Studying accounting, business or technology in a bachelor's degree program at an accredited college or university located in the 50 states or Washington, D.C.
- Full-time students in good standing at their college/university with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above.

Who is not eligible for the scholarship?

Full-time and/or part-time employees, temporary employees, partners, principals, contractors, and current or former interns (and their immediate family members) of RSM US LLP, RSM US Wealth Management LLC, Risk & Regulatory Consulting, LLC, and their respective affiliated entities (collectively, "RSM") and of the Foundation are not eligible.

When is the deadline to apply?

Eligible students may submit their Power Your Education application and check the box to opt-in to the Power of Inclusion scholarship between 12:01 a.m. Central Time on December 1, 2021, and 11:59 p.m. Central Time, February 28, 2022. Only one application per student is allowed.

How are the recipients selected?

You will complete the Power Your Education application (see “How do I submit my scholarship application?” for instructions) and submit a short video demonstrating what RSM’s brand promise The Power of Being Understood® means to you.

Your video must not exceed 30 seconds, and you will also submit a short answer response (statement) and unofficial transcript. A panel of judges, selected by the RSM US Foundation in its sole discretion and on the advice of RSM’s Culture, Diversity, and Inclusion national team, will review and judge each applicant’s Application based on content alignment of the Video with RSM’s Culture, Diversity, and Inclusion (“CDI”) initiative (65%), quality of the Video (25%), and quality of the Statement (10%) (“Judging Criteria”). Judges will grade the Video content, Video quality, and Statement each on a scale of one to seven, with seven being the highest score. In judging the Video content, judges will evaluate the degree to which the Video demonstrates what the RSM brand promise The Power of Being Understood® means to you and reflects CDI’s mission to celebrate the benefits of a diverse and inclusive workforce and workplace to achieve superior results and innovative thinking. In judging the Video creativity, judges will evaluate the degree of originality, level of personal perspective provided, and quality of the video. The judges will evaluate the Statement based on creativity, quality of writing, and reflection of the applicant’s individuality.

Upload your video to YouTube. Please select “Unlisted” from the visibility settings when you upload your Video on YouTube, so that your Video is not publicly available. You will need the link to your video when submitting your application.
